

Breaking News: IFUPSA USA Alumni Reunion holds in New Jersey

25.06.2010 02:36:18 |

New Jersey, USA - June 25, 2010: It was an exciting and joyous occasion for US based Alumni of the Obafemi Awolowo University Physiotherapy program when they converged recently at Embassy Suite Hotel, Parsippany, New Jersey. It was a time of sweet reminiscence of the good old days in school on the Ile-Ife campus. Gracing the occasion are some of the professors privileged to have 'physiotherapeutically' shaped the lives and clinical practice of these great Ife Ambassadors.

Present at the occasion are Professor Joseph A. Balogun, Professor Victor Obajuluwa, Professor Oladehinde Abereojie and many others (the full roll call at the conference will follow later). Professor Balogun delivered the keynote address titled "Our American Journey: Challenges, Threats and Opportunities". Professor Obajuluwa's address was titled "Strategic Giving to the Alma Mater, for the Academic Advancement of Physical Therapy Profession in Nigeria".

This is a breaking new.....full details will follow later.

Please enjoy some pictures taken during the IFUPSA Alumni Reunion Conference....as seen by the lenses of Dr. Ayo Ayoola.
